

Roadside Ahi Tuna Tostada

Published on Wednesday, 03 September 2014 17:57 |

Chef Javier Plascencia's Roadside Ahi Tuna Tostada is the solution to the perfect summer meal. Just mix ahi tuna with lemon juice, cilantro and ponzu and assemble the tostada with guacamole, greens and habañero cream sauce. Pair it with a favorite Mexican wine or beer and dinner is ready.

Roadside Ahi Tuna Tostada

Serves 4

- 4 tostadas
- 1 c. ahi tuna, cut in squares
- 4 oz. lemon juice
- 4 c. cilantro, finely cut
- 8 oz. ponzu sauce
- 1 c. guacamole
- 1 c. spring mixed greens
- 4 t. radish, cut in strips
- 4 oz. fresh cream
- 4 oz. habañero cream sauce (recipe follows)
- 1 t. sesame seeds

Mix tuna, lemon juice, cilantro and ponzu in a small bowl. Cover one side of the tostada in guacamole. Cover tostada with tuna. Top with greens and radish. Add cream and habañero sauce on top. Sprinkle with sesame seeds.

Habañero Cream Sauce

- 1 c. cream cheese
- 3/4 c. milk
- 1/2 c. cilantro
- 1 1/2 T. habañero peppers
- 1/2 T. chicken stock
- Dash of ground black pepper

Fry habañero peppers until golden brown. Blend all ingredients, including the fried peppers, in a mixer.

GROWING FRUITS & VEGGIES AT HOME

This year's focus for the San Diego Botanic Garden's annual gala is "Fork-To-Table." If a visit to your local farmer's market isn't on your weekly schedule, you may want to put some effort into producing your own fruits and vegetables at home. Below are a few tips that may help you on your way as the "farm-to-table" concept is becoming more popular every day.
